

PRINT | CLOSE
WINDOW

California Company Enters New Jersey Real Estate Market

By Shankar P.
4/22/2008

Sperry Van Ness, a commercial real estate brokerage firm based in Irvine, Calif., today announced its expansion into the New Jersey market, opening offices in Iselin and Lodi.

Sperry Van Ness said it has more than 990 advisors in more than 150 locations across the country. The advisors are independent contractors who come together under Sperry Van Ness's "unique model of cooperating with other brokers," said Doug Richter, managing director of the Iselin office.

Richter says he's not worried about the timing of the company's entry into the Garden State. "The commercial real estate market will ebb and flow," he says. Richter has 10 years of experience in the New Jersey and Manhattan markets, according to Sperry Van Ness.

NJBIZ, Copyright © 2008, All Rights Reserved.