

Employee Survey:
Real Estate Pros Mostly Happy, But...

For Tech Tenants,
Access to Workforce,
Good Space Are Key

After Hours
With CBC's
Rick Davidson

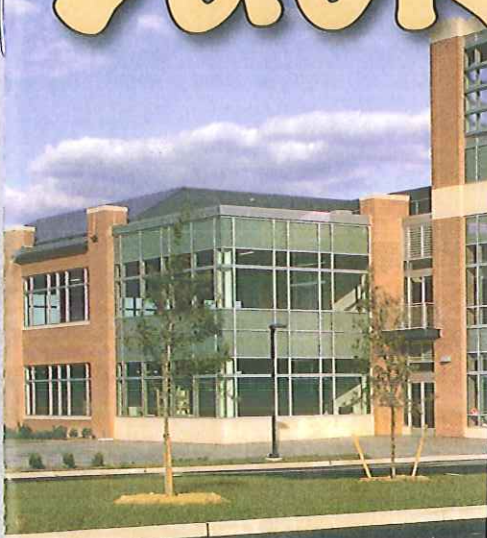

Real Estate

NEW JERSEY

Published by Real Estate Forum Magazine

September 2008

Back To School

Richter and Grusd

Sperry Van Ness | Richter Grusd, based in Iselin, to expand its Garden State presence, specifically in Central New Jersey. Now SVN has aligned with Jeff Gorodensky and Pat Forde, both formerly of Marcus & Millichap, and established an office in Lodi to focus on the Northern New Jersey/Upstate New York market.

And as far as SVN | Richter Grusd, they've recently picked up four new sale listing in four Central Jersey counties: 1980 N. Olden Ave., a 33,000-sf shopping center in Ewing; 11 Diamond Rd., a 42,500-sf industrial building in the Springfield Industrial Park; 49 Sixth St., a 100,800-sf W/D building in East Brunswick; and a 2.14-acre site on Hope Rd. in Eatontown.

Sperry Van Ness Continues NJ Expansion

Earlier this year, Doug Richter of the Richter Org. and Ian Grusd of Re/Max hooked up with Sperry Van Ness to form

Now the state's universities are forming the economic pump